

THE WHITE PAPER COMPANY FAIL
DAYTON, Ohio, Jan. 2.—The appraisers appointed by the court to invoice the stock, equipments and real estate of the White Paper company, which failed here last month, report that the stock is worth $2,000; the equipment, $50,000, and the realty $25,000, or a total of $75,000. The liabilities are about $200,000. The stockholders will be assessed double liabilities on their stock.